

Experience MATTERS Jenkins & Wynne

FAMILY TRADITION

...our customers know it matters

When they first came to Jenkins & Wynne back in 2002, the Shulers had already decided to purchase one of the newly introduced Honda Elements. They knew that buying locally would be beneficial in the long run and decided to see what Jenkins & Wynne could offer. Not only was the vehicle they wanted in stock but the sales professionals were easy to work with. They were so satisfied with their Honda Element, the price and their experience at Jenkins & Wynne, they began demonstrating their unique vehicle, "Miss Ellie", to strangers and referring them to our dealership. Ten years later, through five new vehicle purchases and countless routine service visits, the Shulers continue to appreciate the consistent and courteous attention from our sales and maintenance personnel everytime they visit Jenkins & Wynne.

We're proud to serve loyal customers like the Shulers and their family. Come by the dealership and let us show you that "experience matters" and that it's what YOU experience as our customer that matters most.
